Coach's Comments

After a break from our usual home game schedule we are happy to get back to the confines of Spectrum on Sunday but not before the challenging travel of being in Belfast Saturday then flying back morning of Sunday's game. Hopefully we do well at Belfast and will put in a good showing against Cardiff. We are coming off a disappointing loss at Dundee where a poor 3rd period cost us the game, but on the upside, we did take a point, and we have now had a full week of training and recovery for the first time in a long stretch. We are still holding some longer term injuries, but we do have a lot more guys back, and we will likely start the weekend as healthy as we have been since probably September/October, at least in terms of who is well enough to get out and take game action. After months of playing well short, it would be a great way to try and take the season ending run into the playoffs if we can keep a full or mostly full roster on the ice each night. There has been a lot of adversity through a lot of tough times this season, but the character on this team has shown through with so many guys carrying the load, and still having a lot of success, while waiting for time to do its thing and get some people back. We have a lot of things to be proud of with this team and we are looking forward to the stretch run of the schedule ahead. We hope you enjoy the upcoming weekend of action.
